Location

The village originated as a stopping point on the drover's route to Inveraray. The property offers views of An Lodan which is a small loch armed from the famous Loch Awe is a great spot for Pike fishing and seeing the wonderful wildlife that is in the local area. Several standing stones are scattered around the area, the three most notable ones being the one in the field next to the guest house, there is also a crannog present and it is clearly visible from the road. The slightly bigger village of Kilmartin is about a 5-minute drive away which has a church, hotel, pub, museum and cafe. Lochgilphead is 8 miles further south of Kilmartin which has bigger amenities such as numerous cafes, pubs, restaurants, hotels, high school, supermarket, Tesco express, dentist, hospital, opticians, vets and many more.
