Location

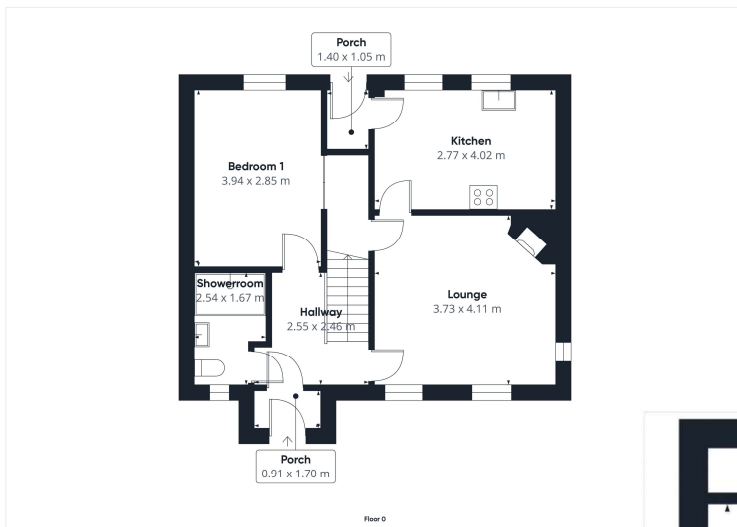

The property is a short walk away from the local Stagecoach Inn with a beer garden serving tasty food and drinks. The local community centre with post office, Loch Fyne Oysters, the tree shop and visitor information are 1 mile south towards Inveraray. Other attractions such as Fyne Ales Brewery and the Ardkinglas estate are nearby. The nearby village of Strachur has the local primary school, Post Office and cafe, a retail service station, an excellent Medical Centre with an in-house pharmacy, and a vibrant Community Hall and Sports Pavilion. There are some great places to eat and drink in the area. Including the local tearoom, Creggans Hotel and Clachan Bar. A short distance away you will find places like Portavadie Marina, The Village Inn, Inver Cottage Restaurant, Brambles Bistro and The Loch Fyne Hotel and Spa. The main town of Dunoon is approx 18 miles along Loch Eck. Here you will find the main amenities like the local hospital, Grammar School, supermarkets, dentists and much more. The A83 & A82 provide access to central Scotland. Arrochar has a mainline rail station with a service to and from Glasgow city centre and a sleeper to London. The frequent Western Ferry car service between McInroy's Point and Hunters Quay provides travel to Glasgow and the west of mainland Scotland or alternatively, Argyll Ferries run from Dunoon to Gourock. The area offers much in the way of outdoor pursuits including cycle routes, challenging hill climbs, walks and several golf courses. The recently established Cowal Way stretches from Portavadie in the West and travels eastwards for 31 miles through some of the most dramatic and picturesque sea and landscapes in the west coast. The coastline of the Cowal Peninsula is fast becoming known as Argyll's secret coast by Welcome to Scotland. Sea, river and loch fishing are also available in the area as are a number of commercially-run shoots. Some of the local estates allow stalking by arrangement.
