Location

The property is conveniently located on the bay road with easy access to the shores of Loch Fyne and local sailing club pontoon. The local café and post office is yards away with further facilities including the local school within easy walking distance. 1 hour west of Glasgow airport. Strachur is a place of natural scenic beauty which is always popular with locals and visitors alike. Many people are now choosing to retire to areas like this due to the easy pace of life, community spirit, local amenities and safe environment. The village has a local primary school, Post Office and cafe, a retail service station, an excellent Medical Centre with an in-house pharmacy, and a vibrant Community Hall and Sports Pavilion. There are some great places to eat and drink in the area. Including the local tearoom, Creggans Hotel and Clachan Bar. A short distance away you will find places like Portavadie Marina, Loch Fyne Oysters, The Stagecoach Inn, The Village Inn, Inver Cottage Restaurant, Brambles Bistro and The Loch Fyne Hotel and Spa.

The nearby main town of Dunoon is approx 18 miles along Loch Eck. Here you will find the main amenities like the local hospital, Grammar School, supermarkets, dentists and much more. The A83 & A82 provide access to central Scotland. Arrochar has a mainline rail station with a service to and from Glasgow city centre and a sleeper to London. The frequent Western Ferry car service between McInroy's Point and Hunters Quay provides travel to Glasgow and the west of mainland Scotland or alternatively, Argyll Ferries run from Dunoon to Gourock. The area offers much in the way of outdoor pursuits including cycle routes, challenging hill climbs, walks and several golf courses. The recently established Cowal Way stretches from Portavadie in the West and travels eastwards for 31 miles through some of the most dramatic and picturesque sea and landscapes in the west coast. The coastline of the Cowal Peninsula is fast becoming known as Argyll's secret coast by Welcome to Scotland. Sea, river and loch fishing are also available in the area as are a number of commercially-run shoots. Some of the local estates allow stalking by arrangement.
