Grounds

The gardens and views are a true highlight of the property. Enclosed front garden enjoys a superb open outlook towards Loch Fyne and the surrounding hills. Mainly laid to lawn with established shrubs, mature planting and gravelled areas, with paved pathways and steps leading to the property. A gated entrance opens onto the pedestrian footpath providing convenient access to the village shop, hall, doctors and bus top. A track opposite the property leads down towards the shores of Loch Fyne. To the rear is a sizeable, enclosed garden, predominantly laid to lawn with mature trees, established shrubs and planting, a drying green and timber garden shed. Paved areas provide space for outdoor seating and garden storage. The village children's play park and playing fields are conveniently located adjacent to the rear garden, adding to the appeal for families looking for a home in the area.

Location

Furnace is set on the banks of Loch Fyne, surrounded by picturesque Argyll countryside and offering an excellent setting for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits. The village has a primary school, community shop with Post Office facilities, village hall and community facilities, with shoreline access, fishing and scenic countryside walks all close by. The Leacainn Walk provides a local walking route, while historic Auchindrain Township is approximately two miles north of the village. The nearby town of Inveraray, around seven miles to the north, offers a wider selection of shops, cafés, restaurants and visitor attractions including Inveraray Castle and Inveraray Jail. Lochgilphead is approximately 20 minutes away and provides further shopping, secondary schooling, hospital and additional services. The A83 provides the main road link through the area, with bus connections towards Inveraray and onward routes to Glasgow.
